Savor a World of Authentic Cuisine

GRAPIEST CORNER OF VERONA

76 FORGET Romeo and Juliet: the real stars of Verona reside in the wine cellar of BOTTEGA DEL VINO, one of the city's oldest and most bibulous eateries. Owner Severino Barzan stocks 100,000-plus bottles, from the best of the Veneto (Anselmi, Dal Forno, Quintarelli) to wines from Burgundy, Chile, and Australia. More than 100 are also available by the glass, and the menu honors the region's hearty cuisine with dishes like bigoli pasta with duck sauce, risotto with amarone, and polenta with gorgonzola. Barzan has plans to open an outpost in Manhattan, too. We can't wait! ★
